

Study Advisory Center UdS

The Saarland University's central Student Advisory Service is the point of contact for all matters relating to questions and advice regarding the choice of studies in general, a degree without a university entrance qualification, the degree programmes offered by the university (Bachelor/Master/Further and Advanced Training and its structure, content and requirements, the course of study, the financing of training, the compatibility of studies and professional activity, or the study in part-time or second degree, as well as information on the topic of reorientation, change of subject, study problems or the phase-out of studies. The counselling centre also helps and supports the student at the beginning of their studies, such as the preparation of the timetable. However, mentoring programmes are also offered through this position in order to help and accompany students with their familiarization and orientation. The office and the way to this is completely barrier-free and suitable for wheelchair users.
